

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Brown has a new ad.

Santa Claus soon be here.

What happened to the furniture factory?

Barnhouse has fresh eggs—all you want.

Have you heard of any holiday weddings?

Come to this office when you want printing.

The Ironton schools close Friday for the holidays.

The merchants are complaining of dull business.

An abundance of fresh eggs for the holidays at Barnhouse's.

An occasional wild turkey is brought to town. Not many.

Some needed repairs will be made on St. Paul's church soon.

Rev. May is now stationed at Fruitland, in Cape Girardeau county.

Some of the pupils in the Ironton schools are objecting to going to school on New Year's.

Toys, Toys, Toys, at B. N. Brown's. They cost so little; they give so much pleasure.

Go to Barnhouse's and buy your boy a wagon, or air gun, and your little girl a doll and set of dishes.

Born—To Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, Pilot Knob, Mo., Sunday, December 15, 1907, a boy. All are well.

Buy your Christmas Candles and Nuts at Lopez's. Special prices in quantities to schools and churches.

The Bonne Terre and Doe Run lead companies have put their employees on half time, until times get better.

John Goff and family departed for Glover, Iron county, for a three days' visit Friday morning.—Centerville Outlook.

It is rumored that the services of the train auditors on the Iron Mountain will be dispensed with in the near future.

The two saloons in the county will probably enjoy a rousing Christmas trade. No financial depression for them.

Carlos Laxton, charged with gaming, was placed in jail here last week. He will be tried during Circuit Court this week.

All work on the new side track at the station has been abandoned. The approaches to the station are in a most horrible condition.

The creamery in Arcadia was sold at trustee's sale Monday and bid in for $1,600 by the W. J. Lemp Brewery Co., of St. Louis.

The stork left a little baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baldwin, Ironton, Mo., Thursday, December 15, 1907. All are well.

We want to print a little earlier than usual next week and would like for all our correspondents to have their letters here by Monday morning.

Postmaster Bishop's term as postmaster expires the latter part of January. We are told that there are three or four applicants for the place.

We hear that the St. Francois county officials are after J. N. Long, the orphan home man, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.

It is said that the Bonne Terre and Doe Run lead companies have over two hundred cars of pig lead on hand, which they are holding for better prices.

Lee Jackson will, we understand, close down his saw mill at this place and move to his farm, near Annapolis, in Iron county.—Centerville Outlook.

The night office of the Ironton Station has been closed, and the lonely traveler who wants to board the night train will have to await its coming in the cold and darkness.

Iron Lodge, No. 107, I. O. O. F., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: F. M. Davis, N. G.; J. B. Bell, V. G.; E. L. Barnhouse, Secretary; John Albert, Treasurer.

Sylvan Lodge, No. 185, D. R., has elected the following officers to serve next year: Mrs. Meda Kaesmahoe, N. G.; Mrs. Bell, V. G.; H. Adolph, Secretary; Mrs. Adolph, Treasurer.

The following attorneys from a distance have been in attendance of Circuit Court this week: L. F. Dinning, Potosi; E. A. Rozier, Farmington; J. H. Raney, Greenville; J. B. Daniel, Piedmont.

Strayed—From Mrs. Pruitt's farm, one mile east of Ironton, a black bull one year old; an under-bit in right ear and clip and split in the left ear. Please send any information to the REGISTER office.

The Schneider Granite Company at Graniteville, last week paid out several hundred dollars in cashier's checks, issued by the National Bank of Commerce in St. Louis, to employees for work done in November.

Polite Elvins, of St. Francois county, well known in the valley, it is said, will seek the Republican nomination for Congress in this district next year. Don't do it, Polite. No Republican will have a ghost of a show in 1908.

A petition, addressed to the railroad officials, asking that No. 10, the north-bound train at 10 o'clock in the morning, stop at Ironton station, was circulated among our people last week. The train is certainly needed by the traveling public.

Married—On December 8th, 1907, Mr. John Shy to Mrs. Docia Parmer, both of Lesterville. Our informant says the marriage was performed in St. Louis. They have many friends, with whom we join in wishing them much happiness.—Centerville Outlook.

Mr. J. Grandhomme last week received a letter from Dr. Hetrick announcing his safe arrival at Columbus Junction, Iowa. The Dr. says he was given a hearty welcome by his old friends, and he asks to be remembered to all who treated him kindly while here.

Postmaster Bishop received word this morning that, commencing December 20th, the railway mail service on train No. 26 would be discontinued, and in lieu thereof mail service would be established on the train that goes north through here about seven o'clock in the evening.

Fred S. Russell, son of C. S. Russell, who has been attending Westminster College at Fulton this year, broke his leg while jumping Monday last week. Mr. Russell went to Fulton and brought the young man home last Friday. Fred is getting along as well as could be expected.

It is rumored among railroad men that another time card will be issued soon and that trains No. 1 and 26 will be taken off the road. If this is true and we are given nothing else, Ironton will be just about without train service. We can hardly believe that there is foundation for the rumor.

W. F. Crommer of Belgrade was in Potosi Monday. Mr. Crommer has been in St. Louis and reports the lumber business as very dull. While in the city he purchased two car loads of oak lumber at $10 per thousand feet, which three months ago would have brought $18 per thousand. He offered to sell at $12 but did not sell it.—Potosi Independent.

Judge Williams has signed the last of the Spang fee bills and they will be immediately certified to the State Auditor for payment. The total amount of cost which the State will have to pay is slightly above $3,100. But that is not all that these cases cost as there was probably $1,500 paid by this county and Iron that the State is not liable for.—Centerville Outlook.

Mr. Kossuth Weber, the attorney from Farmington, started to drive over to Ironton Monday morning and just as he got out of Farmington the team ran away, throwing him out of the buggy and quite badly injuring him: one bad cut on the head and a number of bruises. We are glad to be able to state, however, that he is getting along very well and will not likely suffer any permanent inconvenience.

"I have been attending the Circuit Court in Iron county for the past thirty years," said a well-known attorney to the REGISTER man Monday afternoon, "but I saw something today that I never saw before. I saw a drunken juror fall all the way down the court house stairs. In view of the fact that always, heretofore, there have been three or four licensed saloons in Ironton, and now you haven't a single one, the occurrence impressed me as being somewhat singular."

James Kitchell, of Annapolis, made his appearance before Squire Rasche Monday to answer a charge of carrying brass knuckles. Last June Kitchell and Dave Worley had some trouble and Worley cut Kitchell. The latter swore out a warrant against Worley alleging assault with intent to kill. Worley afterwards swore out a warrant against Kitchell for carrying knuckles. Kitchell has been in Texas since the warrant was issued, and he returned Monday to answer the charge. Worley will be tried before the Circuit Court this week. Kitchell will probably be tried before Squire Rasch in the next week.

At a meeting last Friday night Ironton Lodge, No. 244, K. P., elected the following officers: C. E. Downey, C. C.; James Newman, V. C.; I. A. Marshall, P. F. Kindell, M. W.; H. Adolph, K. of R. S.; W. F. Trauernicht, M. E.; Jesse M. Hawkins, M. E.; Chas. Hanson, M. A.; Harry Patton, O. G.; A. Roehry, Trustees. After lodge those present were taken to one of the nicest luncheons that it has been our lot to participate in. Everything to eat, plenty of cigars, and say, you ought to hear our quartette sing! Sing, yes! Can a mocking bird sing or an Italian play a hand organ? Look out for the first meeting in January. I am going to look after the catobes. I know what's good—come, let's have a good time.

It is reported on good authority that there is every indication that the Missouri Lumber & Mining Company will shut down their works at Grandin and their various camps, because of the cut in the price of lumber and the number of orders they are receiving. Manager J. B. White is quoted as saying that this is the first time in the history of their operations that they were running without orders for their products ahead. It is not very probable that all work will cease at Grandin, but a large share of it perhaps will be discontinued, while at the camps it will likely be a complete shut-down.—Van Buren Local.

What, Mr. White! Do you mean to say that conditions are worse under this blessed Roosevelt regime than they were under the "free trade" days of Cleveland?

Mrs. Mary Walter, beloved wife of Michael Walter, of Pilot Knob, died in the Lutheran Hospital, St. Louis, Sunday, December 15, 1907, aged 60 years, two months and five days. The deceased had been in poor health for about a month, and three weeks ago was taken to St. Louis in the hope that the better attention she could have there would be beneficial. For a few days there seemed to be an improvement, then there was a relapse, and it was soon apparent that the end was near. Mrs. Walter was a sister of the late Jacob Grandhomme, one of Ironton's pioneer citizens. A husband, a son and a daughter are left to revere her memory and mourn her demise. The remains were brought to Ironton Monday. The funeral occurred from the Lutheran church Pilot Knob, Tuesday afternoon, and the remains were interred in the K. P. cemetery, Ironton. May she rest in peace.

Last February the Ironton Lawn Improvement Association was organized for the purpose of encouraging children of public school age in floral culture and the beautifying of their yards and lawns. Due notice was given, and several children entered the contest. The committee appointed by the association viewed the various yards that were to be improved by the contestants, and kept "tab" on them during the season. The contestant showing the greatest improvement in appearance of lawn and yard was to be awarded ten dollars in gold, one-half of which was contributed by the Iron County Realty Company, and Mrs. W. J. Smith very generously offered to the contestant showing next to most improvement, a course of lessons in penmanship. Last week the committee met and awarded first prize to Alta Kindell and the second to Otto Collins.

Circuit Court met in adjourned session Monday afternoon on the arrival of Judge Williams. The case against Thos. Pearsons, charged with rape, was called, but the defendant's attorney would not answer ready for trial, and little was done Monday or Tuesday, except to dispose of some civil suits. Monday evening the Court fined John H. Raney, attorney for Pearsons, $20 for contempt. Tuesday, Pearsons' attorneys filed motion for a change of venue—asking for another judge to try the case. The motion was overruled and the Court announced that on Wednesday morning he would have a hearing to determine whether Mr. Raney should not be barred from further practicing in the Iron County Circuit Court. The Court contended that at the regular term of Circuit Court in October an agreement was made by the prosecuting attorney and Mr. Raney that the Pearsons case would go to trial at adjourned term. The Court takes the view that Mr. Raney has not acted in good faith and should be disbarred. However, when Court convened Wednesday morning the Court rescinded its action of the day before and continued the case against Pearsons until January 6th when another judge will be called in to try the case. Nothing was done in the disbarment proceeding up to the time of going to press.

Mr. S. E. Lowe, the insurance man in St. Louis, writes us that he has in his possession a certificate, purported to have been made by John S. Luthy, Notary Public at Pilot Knob, wherein Mr. Luthy certifies that the Schmitz property, recently destroyed by fire in that town, was worth $3,550. Mr. Luthy tells the REGISTER positively that he never made any such certificate, and that if Mr. Lowe has any such document it is forged. We have known Mr. Luthy a long, long while and we have no doubt that he is telling the truth. Mr. Lowe's letter in regard to the certificate follows:

St. Louis, Dec. 11th, 1907.
E. D. AKE, Esq.
My Dear Sir: Referring again to the Luthy certificate, I beg to enclose a full copy, showing that he did certify to the value as $3,550.00, although I am satisfied that he did so under a misapprehension of what he was doing, and I wrote him Monday suggesting that he make an affidavit as to the facts. The proofs themselves were sworn to before a notary here, and they tried to get me to accept the statement of three real estate men in place of the nearest Magistrate, but I declined, and they evidently obtained Mr. Luthy's statement without his understanding what he was doing, as you will see by the copy I send you.
Yours very truly,
S. E. Lowe,
Adjuster.

Now, who do you suppose the "three real estate men" are? The REGISTER would like to establish their identity. Are they "ringsters" or "ring-busters"? Maybe Benny can tell.

The next time an Iron county Republican says anything to you about "ring" rule cite him to the St. Louis Sub-Treasury and ask him a few questions. It will be recalled that some time last year the discovery was made that $61,500 had been stolen from the government sub-treasury in St. Louis. A teller in the office, who was custodian of the stolen money, was charged with the theft, and, after one of the most remarkable trials in the history of the country, was acquitted. A year has passed. The U. S. is loser to the extent of $61,500 and apparently no effort, whatever, is being made to ascertain what became of the money. Last week the President re-appointed T. J. Atkins (under whose administration the money was stolen) Sub-Treasurer at St. Louis, and it is announced from Washington that the Republican Congress will immediately pass a bill relieving Mr. Atkins and his bond from any liability for the stolen $61,500. How is that for ring rule, gentle reader? Then you say, "Are you going to hold the Republicans of Iron county responsible for the state of affairs in the St. Louis Sub-Treasury?" Most assuredly not. But when the local ring-busters are lying about and vilifying the honest Democratic officials of Iron county do they ever mention the St. Louis Sub-Treasury? Not on your life! Ben and his lying corps are as silent as the tomb on the question.

The following is a characteristic excerpt from an article in last week's Enterprise:
Dr. Gay was fined $100 and costs at the last Circuit Court for selling one bottle of Duffy's Malt as medicine. Thousands of druggists are selling it as medicine everywhere. What does that matter? The Dr., although a law-abiding citizen and a gentleman, is a criminal by the laws of Iron county. He had dared to tell the truth when on the witness stand in the trial of the circuit clerk of Iron county for assault. Such treason against the ring must be punished.

Dr. Gay was indicted by the grand jury at the April term of Circuit Court. Mr. Hawkins had his trouble with Benny nearly four months after—in August. There were four counts in the Gay indictment; on a compromise the accused pleaded guilty to one before Judge Williams, and the three others nolle prossed. The punishment assessed was a fine of $100, the lowest the law permits. Judge Williams is a Republican; but, according to Blundering Benny, he, too, must be a member of the Iron county "ring," bent on "punishing" the accused for telling the truth at the Hawkins trial! Let us erect a supposititious case, Benny: Supposing Dr. Marshall, who is a strong and earnest Democrat, was running a drug store and had been indicted for four alleged offenses, and the prosecuting attorney had nolle prossed three out of the four counts, wouldn't you, Benny, be filling the circumambient atmosphere with yellings of "ring!" and "ring rule!" and denouncing the inadequacy of the punishment inflicted? Go to! Even your biased and prejudiced following surely cannot have the stomach to retain and assimilate the stuff you would cram them with.

A fine lot of coffees and spices at Barnhouse's. H. and K. Brand, the best on earth.

SCRIBBLER.

This Christmas B. N. Brown has the largest line of shoes, over-sees, rubber-boots, felt-boots, etc., he has ever shown. Price and quality just right.

From Des Arc.

We have had another good week for business. Merchants were taxed to their capacity to wait on the trade.

Mill hands are trading more since the money panic set in. The saw-mills have orders to run until January 1st. By that time we hope for a change for the better.

A gent's furnishing store has been established here. Mr. Southern is the proprietor. We hope he will do well.

We also have two lively stables here. So there is no trouble to get rigs.

Dr. O'Bannon is having a 4-room cottage built on College Hill. Mr. Walter Strother, Geo. Gasman, and others are doing the work.

John and Bud Stevenson were in Poplar Bluff on business last week.

Miss Kinder and daughter, Roxie, after a two-weeks' visit with her niece, Mrs. Bud Stevenson, have returned to Bismarck.

Dr. Toney was called here Monday to consult with Dr. Farr on the serious illness of the youngest child of Mr. Wm. Stevenson. It is thought the child has appendicitis. She is some better at this writing.

There are a number of cases of pneumonia in our neighborhood. Dr. Farr is going all the time.

ISAAC.

Barnhouse has the finest line of Christmas Candles in town. Christmas Tree ornaments; also fine boxes of bonbons at Barnhouse's from 25 cents to $1.00.

Annapolis News.

Mr. Paperman, we have had some snow and rain but the weather is moderating some at present.

Ed. Delaney is in Annapolis again and gave "Squire Kitchell some abusive slang again and threatened bodily harm for which the 'Squire intends to have him put under a peace bond of $1,000 for the next twelve months.

Old Aunt Eva Buckner, who lived half-mile southeast of Annapolis, died at her home on the 10th inst., at the age of seventy-four years and two days. She was struck down speechless on the morning of the 9th, while milking the cows and never spoke again, and died next morning at about the same time. She leaves two sons, John and Frank Buckner, and three daughters, if all are living, and a host of grandchildren to mourn the loss of a good mother, one whom everybody thought well of, and will miss her in the future. She was a Christian woman, and no doubt is at rest with her husband who crossed the Great Divide some thirty years ago. The old lady has lived on the old plantation up to the date of her death. She was taken to the Sutton Cemetery, and interred by the side of her husband.

Times are pressing down some closer. You have to pay three-per-cent on the dollar at the banks now to get greenbacks, when in 1892 it was not worth over fifty cents on the dollar in the south.

W. W. Pennington, who has been clerking for S. Kitchell in the grocery store for the past three months, and who was taken down sick some two weeks ago, is now on the mend and will move to Ellington Monday, to his son's, and intends in the near future to go to Bunker, in the western part of Reynolds county, where he has another son who is foreman on grading gang on what is called the Leeper & Salem Railroad.

N. S. Harris, of Annapolis, who has been sick for the past eight weeks, is getting on the mend some, and was out in town twice the past week.

Five dollars reward has not been brought in the J. P. docket and longer yet, but the reward still stands. Don't be afraid to bring it in if you know where it is, as it is of no value to whoever has it, whoever that may be; only to the Justice of the Peace has it any value.

Mary E. Kitchell, who has been sick for the past ten months, is now improving some and can get about in the house, wherever she wants to go. She is under the care of Dr. Chas. H. Jones, of Brunot, Mo.

Well, Mr. Editor, we are only averaging about one jug a day at Annapolis. But it is a two-gallon jug and filled until it smelled a little of corn whisky, or bust-head, while Des Arc is making an average of six jugs a day of forty-rod, off-hand whisky, (make a man sneeze to smell the jug.) We can certainly come up with Des Arc. If we don't we will not be in it for Xmas.

I see Jeff Davis is blown up in the Sunday Post of the 15th. Why don't he run for President? But no, he is booming William J. Bryan for President, a mighty good man to get there to straighten capitalists and boom labor.

Well, Mr. Editor, I will come again, if this does not hit the waste-basket.
